Pirates

Pirates were people who sailed ships around the world looking for other ships to attack. When they attacked ships, they would try to steal whatever the other ship had, especially treasure.

Some pirates had unusual nicknames, such as Blackbeard, Calico Jack and Redbeard.

Lots of pirates wore gold and silver jewellery because they believed it gave them good eyesight.

Some pirates wore an eyepatch. It is believed that they did this to make each eye stronger so they could see in the dark.

No Girls Allowed

pardon -
to forgive

Most pirates believed that it was unlucky to have women on board. However, that didn't stop these women!

Grace O'Malley

Grace lived nearly 500 years ago and was a leader of the Ó Máille clan in Ireland. Although she had lots of land and people to rule, Grace loved sailing and became known as a fearsome pirate.

Anne Bonny

Over 300 years ago, while sailing to the Caribbean, Anne met a pirate called Jack Rackham. They got married and became a feared pirate couple.

Cheng I Sao

After Cheng I Sao's pirate husband died, she took over leading his pirate crew. After years of ruling her fearsome fleet, the government stated that, if she stopped being a pirate, they would offer her a pardo. Cheng I Sao agreed and even got to keep most of her treasure!

Talk like a Pirate

Here are some tips for talking like a pirate.

- Have a go at making your voice sound like a growl.
- Try to emphasise the 'r' sound in all of your words.
- Don't say the letter 'h' in any words, for example 'me hearties' would be 'me arties'.
- Don't say the letter 'g' at the end of words, for example 'sailing' would be 'sailin'.
